

25th January 2021

Dear Parents,

Update on bubble organisation.

The numbers of children attending school are growing and as a result I am going to have to split the children in to two bubbles. I am reluctantly making this decision, however weighing up the risks to children and staff, I feel it is safer to have extra staff in but smaller groups of children, than larger groups of children in one space.

From TOMORROW- TUESDAY 26th January, I am therefore proposing the following organisation:

	Bubble 1	Bubble 2
Classes	Cherry and Beech	Pine and Oak
Times	9-3.15	9-3.15
Base space	Hall	Oak Class (with space to break out into Pine)
Entrance/ exit to be used	Side gate (as it has been)	Front gate and through Oak Class French doors
Adults	2 adults on rota	2 adults on rota

If you have a child in each bubble, please drop and collect from Bubble 1 first, as it will be easier for us to let your older child in/ wait at the Oak Class French doors.

I am sorry that this change has had to be made however, the safety and wellbeing of your child and my staff is paramount.

You may have also heard speculation in the news about how long schools are going to be closed for. I want you to know that I have received no information on this matter, however I will of course update you as soon as I do.

Thank you all for your ongoing support for me, my team and the school. Your kind messages have been much appreciated by all!

Yours sincerely,

Mrs Bradley-Wyatt
Headteacher
