

Quest by Aaron Becker

- In the city park, two friends are startled by the sudden appearance of a King, who thrusts into their hands a map and some strange objects. But before he can explain, the king is captured by enemy forces and whisked back into his world.
- Just like that, the girl and boy are caught up in a wild dash to rescue the mysterious monarch.

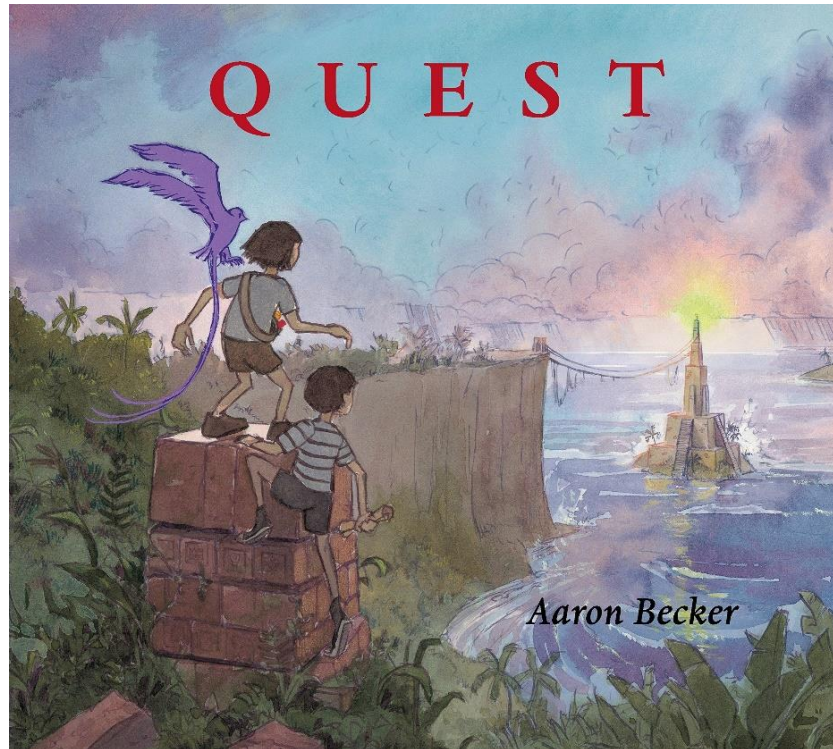

Key vocabulary

Illustration
Inference
Edit
Adjectives
Similes

Whilst exploring this text and the wonderful illustrations, this will support our learning and help us create a variety of writing pieces. We will be:

- Making predictions
- Detailed descriptions of the illustrations
- Sequencing paragraphs
- Writing a dilemma and resolutions
- Inferring from the text
- Exploring exciting vocabulary

Key characters

- A young girl
- A young boy
- A large purple bird who follows the two friends
- A distressed King from another world.

A follow on from the 'Journey' by Aaron Becker will lead Pine Class onto the 'Quest'. This story has been chosen to allow children to 'read' and become engrossed in the fantastic illustrations of Aaron Becker. As a class we will discover the story together and become creative writers to explain and describe the series of events in this story. This story will encourage children to suggest their thoughts, opinions and predictions whilst diving into each page. This will allow pupils to interpret what they see and open up ideas for discussions and exciting vocabulary.

