

The First Charlie Small Journal, Gorilla City

This book is written as a diary; it's an exciting story about a young boy who is 8 years old and goes on one of his many adventures on his own, but will he return home afterwards?

His journey keeps him away from home for over 400 years.

Charlie experiences some difficult dilemmas but always come out safely, often using his brain rather than his strength.

Will Charlie ever make it home?

Some of the writing opportunities this term includes;

Setting description

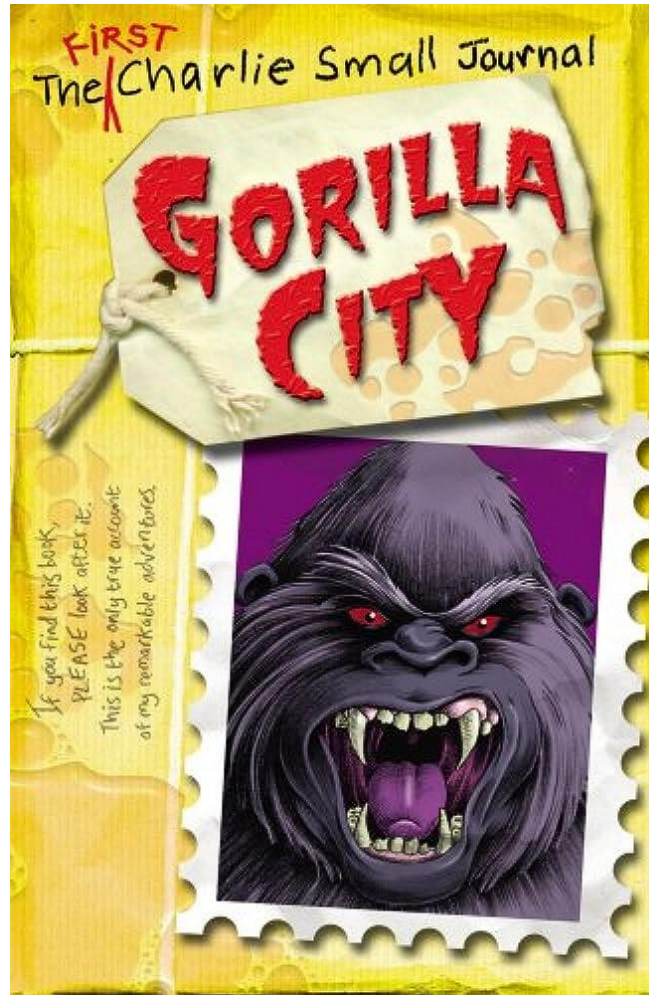

Character description

Informal Letter

Predictions

Internal monologue

Diary entries

Vocabulary

- Onomatopœias
- Conjunctions
- Clauses
- Fronted adverbials
- Drafting
- Editing
- Non-negotiables
- Dictionary
- Thesaurus

Characters

Throughout this text we will meet the main character Charlie Small and be captivated by adventures.

We will also be introduced to a variety of non-verbal characters in the form of jungle animals interfering with Charlies mission to get home.