

Hollingbourne News...

Here we are in week 7 already! We have reached the end of the first term and I can't quite believe it. Thank you all so much for making my first term at Hollingbourne so special. I have felt so welcomed by parents and children alike. I have been incredibly proud to show prospective parents around, as the children greet the visitors so politely and continue to work so hard in lessons.

This week we had a visit from the Dogs Trust, Jo and her four legged friend Paddy taught us all how to be dog smart. The assembly and workshops were very engaging. You can see photos from the workshops on our Twitter feed.

On Tuesday the girls' football team went to a competition. The girls were incredibly resilient and worked very well as a team. Their behaviour was impeccable. Well done for taking part girls!

We hope you enjoy a restful half term.

Here's to an exciting term 2!

Child Voice

“When will school council start? I have some ideas I would like to put forward.”

School council met for the first time this week!

Parent Voice

“Could we make the cloakroom one way, so it is not so crammed in the morning?”

We will look into ways in which the cloakroom can be improved next term.
